Article 6- The Separability of the Arbitration Agreement

Article 7- Written Arbitration Agreement

1- An Arbitration Agreement must be made in writing, or otherwise it shall be null and void.

2- The requirement that an Arbitration Agreement be in writing is met in the following cases:

a- If it is contained in a document signed by the Parties or mentioned in an exchange of letters or other means of written communication or made by an electronic communication according to the applicable rules in the State regarding the electronic transactions.

c- If an Arbitration Agreement is made while the dispute is pending before the competent Court, the Court shall issue its decision confirming the Arbitration Agreement, and the litigants shall freely initiate the arbitration proceedings in the place and time determined thereof and under the terms governing such arbitration, and the Court shall consider the lawsuit as if never existed.

d- If it is contained in an exchange of written statements between the Parties during the arbitration proceedings or upon acknowledgement before the Court, where one party requests that the dispute be referred for Arbitration and no objection is made by the other party in the course of his defence.

Article 8- Adjudication of the dispute containing an Arbitration Agreement

1- The Court before which the dispute is brought in a matter covered by an Arbitration Agreement, shall declare the inadmissibility of the action, if the defendant has raised such plea before any claim or defence on the substance of the case, and unless the Court finds that the Arbitration Agreement is null and void or incapable of being performed.

2- Where an action referred to in the preceding Clause has been brought, the arbitration proceedings may nevertheless be commenced or continued, and an arbitral award may be made.

Chapter 3

Arbitral Tribunal

Article 9- Composition of the Arbitral Tribunal

2- An arbitrator may not be a member of the Board of Trustees or the administrative branch of the competent Arbitration Institution administering the arbitration case in the State.

3- Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties or provided by Law, it is not required that an arbitrator be of a specific gender or certain nationality.

4- Any person who is notified of his possible appointment as an arbitrator, shall declare, in writing, all circumstances that are likely to give rise to doubts as to his impartiality or independence, and he, as from the date of his appointment and throughout the arbitration proceedings, shall, without delay, notify the Parties and other arbitrators of any such circumstances that may arise and which may give rise to doubts as to his impartiality or independence, unless they have already been informed of such circumstance.

Article 11- The method to select the Arbitral Tribunal

1- The Parties may agree on the procedures to be followed for the appointment of the arbitrator or arbitrators, the time and method of their appointment.

2- If the Arbitral Tribunal is composed of a sole arbitrator, and if Parties are unable to agree on the arbitrator within fifteen (15) days from the date of filing of request, in writing, by one party requesting the other party to perform so, then the appointment of said arbitrator shall be made by the Relevant Authority upon request of a party. Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 14 of the present Law, said decision shall not be subject to appeal through any means of recourse.

3- If the Arbitral Tribunal is composed of three arbitrators, each party shall appoint one arbitrator, and the two arbitrators thus appointed shall appoint the third arbitrator. If a party fails to appoint the arbitrator within fifteen (15) days after the receipt of a request to do so from the other party, or if the two arbitrators appointed fail to agree on the third arbitrator within fifteen (15) days after the date of latest appointment, then the appointment of the arbitrator shall be made promptly, upon request of a party, by the Relevant Authority. Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 14 of the present Law, said decision shall not be subject to appeal through any means of recourse.

4- The Relevant Authority shall have due regard to the qualifications required of the arbitrator to be appointed by the present Law, and those agreed upon by the Parties, so as to secure the appointment of an independent and impartial arbitrator.

5- In the cases where the Authorised Entity does not appoint the arbitrator according to the procedures specified by the agreement of the Parties, or according to the provisions of the present Law if there is no agreement, then any party may request from the Court to take the necessary procedure for the completion of the composition and appointment of the members of the Arbitral Tribunal. The Court decision, in this regard, shall not be subject to appeal through any means of recourse.

6- If a request is made to the Relevant Authority for the appointment of an arbitrator, then the applicant shall, at the same time, address copies of the same to all other Parties, and to any arbitrator which has been previously appointed in the same dispute. It is required that the request indicates, briefly, the subject-matter of the dispute and any other conditions required by the Arbitration Agreement to be satisfied by the arbitrator to be appointed, and all steps that have been taken to appoint any remaining member in the Arbitral Tribunal.

7- The third Arbitrator appointed according to the Provisions of this Article shall preside over the Arbitral Tribunal, and this provision shall apply when the Arbitral Tribunal is composed of more than three arbitrators.

8- The Court may, upon request of any party, request from any Arbitration Institution in the State to provide it with a list of arbitration specialists, so as for the Court to appoint one of them, and that is after payment of the fees specified in the Arbitration Institution by the party who has made the request, and it shall be considered as part of the arbitration expenses.

Article 12- Decision-making regarding the Arbitration Proceedings

Unless otherwise provided by the Parties, any decision in the arbitration proceedings, in which participates more than one arbitrator, shall be made by the majority of the members of the Arbitral Tribunal.

However, procedural matters may be decided by the presiding arbitrator of the Tribunal, if so authorised by the Parties or the remaining members of the Arbitral Tribunal.

Article 13- Failure to comply with the procedures for the appointment of the Arbitral Tribunal

If any party fails to comply with the procedures for the appointment of the arbitrators agreed by them, or if they have not originally agreed on said procedures, or if the appointed two arbitrators have not agreed on a matter which is required to be agreed on by them, or if a third party, including the Authorised Entity, fails to perform whatever is assigned to it in this regard, the Court shall at the request of one of the Parties perform the required procedure unless the agreement provides for another way to fulfil this procedure. The decision may not be subject to any recourse.

Article 14- Recusal of an Arbitrator

1- An arbitrator may not be recused except if there are circumstances that are likely to give rise to serious doubts regarding his impartiality or independence, or if it is established that the requirements agreed upon by the Parties or provided by the present Law are not met.

2- No party may submit a request for the recusal of an arbitrator appointed by him, or in whose appointment he has participated, except for a reason of which he becomes aware after the appointment has been made.

3- The recusal request shall not be accepted from such person who has previously submitted a request for the recusal of the same arbitrator, in the same arbitration and for the same reason.

Article 15- Procedures for the recusal of an arbitrator

The Parties may agree on the procedures for the recusal of an arbitrator, subject to the following procedures:

1- A party who intends to recuse an arbitrator shall, within fifteen (15) days after becoming aware of the appointment of said arbitrator or after becoming aware of the grounds for such recusal, send a written statement of the reasons for the recusal of an arbitrator against whom a recusal request was submitted, and a copy of the same shall be sent to the remaining members of the Arbitral Tribunal who have been appointed, and to other Parties.

2- If the challenged arbitrator fails to recuse himself, or if the other party does not approve the recusal within fifteen (15) days from the date of notification of the arbitrator of such request according to the provisions of Article 24 of the present Law, the applicant of recusal may file his request with the Relevant Authority within fifteen (15) days after the termination of the first said fifteen (15) days, and the Relevant Authority shall decide on the recusal request within ten (10) days. Said decision shall not be subject to appeal through any means of recourse.

3- The notification of the arbitrator of the recusal request or the filing of the request with the Relevant Authority shall not result in the stay of the arbitration proceedings. The Arbitral Tribunal including the challenged arbitrator, may continue the arbitration proceedings and issuance of the arbitral award, even if the Relevant Authority has not decided on the request.

4- The withdrawal of the arbitrator from his office or the agreement of the Parties on his dismissal shall not be considered an acknowledgment of the validity of any of the recusal reasons.

5- If the Relevant Authority has decided to recuse the arbitrator, it may take the decision which it may deem appropriate for said arbitrator with respect to fees or expenses or for the recovery of any fees or expenses that have been paid to him. Said decision shall not be subject to appeal through any means of recourse.

Article 16- Termination of the arbitrator's mandate

1- If an arbitrator becomes unable to perform his functions or if he fails to act, or if he ceases to perform the same without undue delay in the arbitration proceedings, or if he, intentionally, neglects to act according to the Arbitration Agreement, though he has been notified through all applicable means of notification and communication in the State, yet he fails to withdraw or if the Parties fail to agree on his dismissal, then the Relevant Authority may, upon request of a party, and after hearing the statements and defence of the arbitrator, terminate his mandate, and its decision in this regard shall not be subject to appeal through any means of recourse.

2- The power of the arbitrator shall be personal, and it shall terminate by his death or loss of capacity, of failure to meet any of the appointment requirements. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, the death or withdrawal of the person who has appointed the arbitrator shall not revoke the power of the arbitrator.

Article 17- Appointment of a substitute arbitrator

1- If the mandate of an arbitrator terminates by decision on his recusal or dismissal or by his withdrawal or any other reason, a substitute arbitrator shall be appointed according to the procedures that were followed for the appointment of the arbitrator whose mandate has been terminated.

2- After the appointment of a substitute arbitrator, the Parties may agree to retain the procedures that have been previously carried out, and to determine the scope thereof. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement in this regard, the reconstituted Arbitral Tribunal shall decide on the validity of any of the previous proceedings and the scope thereof. A decision issued by the reconstituted Arbitral Tribunal shall not affect the right of a party to appeal against the proceedings that have been carried out before the reconstitution of the Arbitral Tribunal, on basis of a reason which has arisen before the appointment of the substitute arbitrator.

Article 18- General Jurisdiction to order the arbitration measures

1- The jurisdiction to examine the arbitration matters referred by the present Law to the competent Court shall be according to the applicable procedural laws in the State, and they shall, solely, have the power until all arbitration proceedings are terminated.

2- The president of the Court may order, upon request of a party or upon request of the Arbitral Tribunal, interim or precautionary measures, as he may deem necessary, for the current or future arbitration proceedings, whether before or in the course of the arbitration proceedings.

3- The measures referred to in the preceding Clause of the present Article shall not result in the stay of arbitration proceedings and shall not be considered as waiver of the Arbitration Agreement.

4- If the president of the Court has issued an order as specified in Clause (2) of this Article, then the effect of this order shall not terminate, wholly or partially, except by decision of the president of the Court.

Article 19- The competence of the Arbitral Tribunal to rule on its own jurisdiction

1- The Arbitral Tribunal may rule on a plea that the Tribunal does not have jurisdiction, including a plea based on the non-existence or validity of the Arbitration Agreement, or that such agreement does not govern the subject-matter of the dispute. The Arbitral Tribunal may rule on such matter, either as a preliminary question or in a final arbitral award on the merits of the dispute.

2- If the Arbitral Tribunal rules as a preliminary question that it has jurisdiction, then any party may request, within fifteen (15) days after having received notice of that decision, the Court to decide the matter. The Court shall decide the request within thirty (30) days from the filing registration date of the request with the Court, which decision shall not be subject to appeal through any means of recourse. The arbitration proceedings shall be stayed until said request is decided upon, unless the Arbitral Tribunal decisions to continue the proceedings upon request of a party.

3- The party who requests to continue the arbitration proceedings shall bear the arbitration expenses if the Court has ruled that the Arbitral Tribunal has no jurisdiction.

Article 20- Time limit to raise a plea that the Arbitral Tribunal lacks jurisdiction

1- A plea that the Arbitral Tribunal does not have jurisdiction shall be raised not later than the submission of the statement of defence by the Respondent, referred to in Article 30 of the Law. A plea that the Arbitration Agreement does not cover the matters raised by the other party during the examination of the dispute, shall be raised not later than the next hearing following that in which the plea that the tribunal does not have jurisdiction was submitted, or otherwise the right to raise such plea shall be forfeited. In all case, the Arbitral Tribunal may admit a later plea if it considers the delay justified.

2- A party is not precluded from raising the pleas mentioned in Clause (1) of the present Article due to the fact that he has appointed, or participated in the appointment of, an arbitrator.

Article 21- Interim or precautionary measures

1- Subject to the provisions of Article 18 of the present Law, and unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, the Arbitral Tribunal may, upon request of a party, or on its own initiative, order either one to take interim or precautionary measures as it may deem necessary and as required by the nature of the dispute, and in particular:

a- An order to preserve evidence that may be material to the resolution of the dispute.

b- Taking necessary measures to preserve the goods that constitute a part of the subject-matter of the dispute, such as the order to deposit with third Parties, or to sell perishable goods.

- c- Preserving assets and property of which a subsequent award may be enforced.
- d- Maintaining or restoring the status quo pending determination of the dispute.
- e- Taking action that would prevent, or refrain from taking action that is likely to cause, current or imminent harm or prejudice to the arbitral process itself.

2- The Arbitral Tribunal may require the applicant of interim or precautionary measures to provide appropriate security to cover the costs of these measures, and it may require him to bear all the damage resulting from the enforcement of said orders if the Arbitral Tribunal has decided at a subsequent time his ineligibility to request the issuance of the same.

3- The Arbitral Tribunal may modify, suspend or terminate an interim measure which it has ordered, upon request of a party, or in exceptional cases and upon a prior notice to the Parties, on the tribunal's own initiative.

4- A party in whose interest an interim order is granted and upon a written authorisation from the Arbitral Tribunal, may request the Court to grant an order for the enforcement of the order issued by the Arbitral Tribunal or any part of the same, within fifteen (15) days after having received the request, and copies of the authorisation or enforcement request under this Article shall be sent to all other Parties at the same time.

Article 23- Determination of the applicable proceedings

1- Subject to Article (10/2) of the present Law, the Parties may agree on the procedures that the Arbitral Tribunal is required to be followed to proceed in the arbitration including subjecting these procedures to applicable rules in any Arbitration Institution or organisation inside or outside the State.

2- If there is no agreement to follow certain procedures, the Arbitral Tribunal may determine the procedures that it may deem appropriate subject to the provisions of the present Law, in compliance with the basic principles in litigation and international agreements to which the State is a party.

The letter sent by fax or email shall be considered as received on the date on which it has been sent as shown by its information, provided that there is no indication on any error in the sending process. In all cases, the receipt shall be considered made if received or sent before six in the evening in the country in which the communication was received, and otherwise the receipt shall be considered as made on the next day.

2- For assessment of periods according to the present Law, the period shall start to run on the next day following the receipt of the letter or any other communication. The official holidays or business days which take place during said time limit shall be included in the assessment.

3- The provisions of the present Article shall not apply to communications made in Court proceedings.

Article 25- Waiver of right to object

If a party proceeds with arbitration proceedings knowing that any requirement under the Arbitration Agreement or any of the provisions of the present Law from of which an agreement may be made to the contrary, has not been complied with, where he fails to submit an objection to such violation on the time limit agreed upon or within seven (7) days of the date of becoming aware upon non-agreement, he shall be considered to have waived his to object.

1- If, without acceptable excuse, the Claimant fails to communicate his statement of arbitral claim in accordance with the present Law, and the procedures agreed upon by the Parties, the Arbitral Tribunal may terminate the proceedings, if it believes that there is an undue and inordinate delay by the Claimant in proceeding his claim, and that such delay prevents a fair resolution or results in injustice against the Respondent.

2- If the Respondent fails to submit his statement of defence, the Arbitral Tribunal shall continue the arbitration proceedings without treating such failure in itself as an admission of the Claimant's allegations, and the same provision shall apply in case the Claimant fails to submit his statement of defence against a counterclaim.

3- If, without an acceptable excuse, any party fails to appear at a hearing or to produce documents or to perform any procedure, the Arbitral Tribunal may continue the arbitration proceedings and conclude whatever it may deem appropriate in the light of the acts and the failure of said party, as justified by the circumstances of the arbitration case, and give the award in the dispute on the evidence before it.

3- The expert, before his appointment is accepted, shall submit to the Arbitral Tribunal and the Parties, a statement of his qualifications and an acknowledgment of his impartiality and independence. 6- The Arbitral Tribunal may, on its own initiative or at the request of a party after the filing of the report of the expert, hold a hearing to hear the statements of the experts, where the Parties have been given the opportunity to put questions to him on the matters mentioned in his report and to inspect any document on which his report is based. A party may seek the assistance of one or more experts appointed by him to give his opinion on the points at issue included in the report of the expert who is appointed by the Arbitral Tribunal, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, subject to the provisions mentioned in Article 33 of the present Law.
