

Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025

2025 CHAPTER 31

An Act to make provision about border security; to make provision about immigration and asylum; to make provision about sharing customs data and trailer registration data; to make provision about articles for use in serious crime; to make provision about serious crime prevention orders; to make provision about fees paid in connection with the recognition, comparability or assessment of qualifications; and for connected purposes. [2nd December 2025]

BE IT ENACTED by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART 1

BORDER SECURITY

CHAPTER 1

THE BORDER SECURITY COMMANDER

1 The Border Security Commander

- (1) The Secretary of State must designate a civil servant as the Border Security Commander (“the Commander”).
- (2) The Commander is to carry out the functions of that office on behalf of the Crown.
- (3) Service as the Commander is service in the civil service of the State.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
 Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The Secretary of State must make arrangements for the provision to the Commander by civil servants or other persons (or both) of such assistance as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.

Commencement Information

- I1 S. 1 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 65(1)
I2 S. 1 in force at 5.1.2026 by S.I. 2025/1318, reg. 2(a)

2 Terms and conditions of designation etc

- (1) The Commander is to hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Commander's designation, subject to subsections (3) to (5).
- (2) The terms and conditions of a designation as Commander are to be determined by the Secretary of State.
- (3) In addition to any terms and conditions about termination determined under subsection (2), the Secretary of State may terminate a person's designation as the Commander—
- in the interests of efficiency or effectiveness,
 - because of misconduct by the Commander, or
 - because of failure by the Commander to comply with the terms and conditions of the designation.
- (4) Before terminating a person's designation as the Commander, the Secretary of State must—
- give the Commander a written explanation of the reasons why the Secretary of State is proposing to do so,
 - give the Commander the opportunity to make written representations about the proposal to do so, and
 - consider any written representations made by the Commander.
- (5) If, having complied with subsection (4), the Secretary of State determines that a person's designation as Commander should be terminated, the Secretary of State may terminate that designation—
- with immediate effect, or
 - on such date or at the end of such period as the Secretary of State may determine.

3 Functions of the Commander

- (1) In exercising the Commander's functions, the Commander must have regard to the objectives of—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) maximising the effectiveness of the activities of partner authorities relating to threats to border security, for the purpose of minimising such threats, and
 - (b) maximising the coordination of those activities for that purpose.
- (2) The Commander must from time to time issue a document (a “strategic priority document”) which sets out what, in the Commander’s view, are—
- (a) the principal threats to border security when the document is issued, and
 - (b) the strategic priorities to which partner authorities should have regard in exercising their functions in relation to any of the threats identified under paragraph (a).
- (3) A partner authority must have regard to the strategic priority document in exercising its functions in relation to threats to border security.
- (4) Before issuing a strategic priority document the Commander must—
- (a) consult the Board at a meeting of the Board, and
 - (b) obtain the consent of the Secretary of State to issue the document.
- (5) In this Chapter—
- “border security” means the security of the United Kingdom’s borders;
 - “partner authority” means, subject to subsection (6) and section 10, a public authority with functions in relation to threats to border security (whether exercisable in the United Kingdom or elsewhere);
 - “public authority” means a person with functions of a public nature.
- (6) The following are not partner authorities for the purposes of this Chapter—
- (a) the Security Service;
 - (b) the Secret Intelligence Service;
 - (c) GCHQ.
- (7) For the purposes of this Chapter (but subject to subsection (9)), threats to border security include the passage or conveyance of any person or thing towards, into or out of the United Kingdom, or the organisation of or preparation for such passage or conveyance, in circumstances mentioned in subsection (8).
- (8) Those circumstances are where such passage or conveyance, or the organisation of or preparation for such passage or conveyance—
- (a) constitutes an offence under the law of any part of the United Kingdom,
 - (b) creates a risk of the commission of an offence under the law of any part of the United Kingdom, or
 - (c) threatens harm of any kind to persons or property in the United Kingdom.
- (9) For the purposes of this Chapter, threats to border security do not include threats relating to a customs revenue matter within the meaning of Part 1 of the Borders, Citizenship and Immigration Act 2009 (see section 7(2) of that Act).

4 Duty to prepare annual reports

- (1) As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each financial year, the Commander must prepare an annual report for the financial year.
- (2) The annual report must—
 - (a) state how the Commander has carried out the functions of the Commander in the financial year, and
 - (b) set out the Commander’s views on the performance in the financial year of the border security system, with particular reference to any strategic priorities specified by the Commander in relation to that year under section 3(2)(b).
- (3) The Commander must send a copy of the report to the Secretary of State.
- (4) The Secretary of State must—
 - (a) lay a copy of the report before Parliament, and
 - (b) arrange for it to be published.
- (5) In this section—

“the border security system” means the systems and processes for minimising threats to border security;

“financial year” means—

 - (a) the period beginning on the day on which this section comes into force and ending on the following 31 March, and
 - (b) each successive period of 12 months.

5 Duties of cooperation etc

- (1) A partner authority must, so far as appropriate and reasonably practicable, cooperate with the Commander in the carrying out of the Commander’s functions.
- (2) The duty under subsection (1) extends only so far as the cooperation is compatible with the exercise of the partner authority’s other functions.
- (3) The Commander and a person to whom this subsection applies must put in place arrangements governing cooperation between the Commander and that person in support of the Commander’s functions.
- (4) Subsection (3) applies to—
 - (a) the Director-General of the Security Service,
 - (b) the Chief of the Secret Intelligence Service, and
 - (c) the Director of GCHQ.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

6 The Board

- (1) The Commander must establish and maintain a board to assist the Commander in the exercise of the Commander’s functions.
- (2) That board—
 - (a) is to operate under such name as is specified from time to time by the Commander, but
 - (b) is referred to in this Chapter as “the Board”.
- (3) The members of the Board are to be—
 - (a) the Commander, who is to be the chair of the Board, and
 - (b) one or more representatives nominated by each relevant partner authority.
- (4) In subsection (3)(b) “relevant partner authority” means a partner authority which the Commander has for the time being determined should nominate one or more representatives to the Board.
- (5) The Commander may invite any public authority other than a partner authority to nominate one or more representatives of that authority to attend a particular meeting of the Board.
- (6) The Commander must hold meetings of the Board at such intervals as the Commander thinks appropriate.
- (7) Where a person is required by virtue of this section to nominate a representative as a member of the Board, the person—
 - (a) must take reasonable steps to ensure that the representative attends meetings of the Board, and
 - (b) may, if the representative is unable to attend a particular meeting, arrange for another representative of that person to attend as a member of the Board in that representative’s place.

7 Delegation by the Commander

- (1) The functions conferred on the Commander by this Chapter may be exercised by any civil servant authorised by the Commander for that purpose.
- (2) An authorisation given for the purposes of this section may provide that a function may be exercised—
 - (a) wholly or to a limited extent;
 - (b) generally or in particular cases or areas;
 - (c) unconditionally or subject to conditions.
- (3) An authorisation given for the purposes of this section—
 - (a) may specify its duration,
 - (b) may specify or describe the person authorised,
 - (c) may be varied or revoked at any time by the Commander, and

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) does not prevent the Commander from exercising the function to which the authorisation relates.
- (4) Anything done or omitted to be done by or in relation to a person authorised under this section in, or in connection with, the exercise or purported exercise of the function concerned is to be treated for all purposes as done or omitted to be done by or in relation to the Commander.

8 Designation of an Interim Border Security Commander

- (1) This section applies if the Secretary of State thinks that—
- the designation of a person as the Commander has terminated, or is going to terminate, and there will be a gap before a new designation is made, or
 - the Commander is, or is going to be, temporarily incapacitated or temporarily unavailable to exercise the Commander's functions.
- (2) The Secretary of State may designate a civil servant as the Interim Border Security Commander to exercise the functions of the Commander under this Chapter for such period as the Secretary of State thinks appropriate.
- (3) That period may not be longer than the period for which no Commander is designated or (as the case may be) the Commander is incapacitated or unavailable.
- (4) While a designation under this section has effect, references in this Chapter (other than in this section) or in any other enactment or instrument to the Commander include a reference to the Interim Border Security Commander.
- (5) An individual is not prevented from being designated as the Commander merely because they have previously been designated as the Interim Border Security Commander.

CHAPTER 2

OTHER BORDER SECURITY PROVISION

Offences: things for use in immigration crime and advertising of unlawful immigration services

13 Supplying articles for use in immigration crime

- (1) A person (“P”) commits an offence if—
 - (a) P supplies or offers to supply a relevant article to another person, and
 - (b) at the time P does so, P knows or suspects that the relevant article is to be used by any person in connection with an offence under section 24 or 25 of the Immigration Act 1971 (illegal entry etc and assisting unlawful immigration).
- (2) A person (“P”) commits an offence if—
 - (a) P is concerned in the supplying of, or the making of an offer to supply, a relevant article to another person, and
 - (b) at any time when P is concerned in that act, P knows that the relevant article is to be used by any person in connection with an offence under section 24 or 25 of the Immigration Act 1971.
- (3) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under this section to show that they had a reasonable excuse for the action mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (2)(a) (as the case may be).
- (4) The cases in which a person has a reasonable excuse for the purposes of subsection (3) include (but are not limited to) those in which—
 - (a) their action was for the purposes of carrying out a rescue of a person from danger or serious harm, or
 - (b) they were acting on behalf of an organisation which—
 - (i) aims to assist asylum-seekers, and
 - (ii) does not charge for its services.
- (5) A person is regarded as having shown that they had a reasonable excuse for their action if—
 - (a) sufficient evidence of that matter is adduced to raise an issue with respect to it, and
 - (b) the contrary is not proved beyond reasonable doubt.
- (6) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 14 years.
- (7) In this section and sections 14 and 16 “asylum-seeker” means a person who intends to claim that to remove them from or require them to leave the United Kingdom would be contrary to the United Kingdom’s obligations under—
 - (a) the Refugee Convention (within the meaning given by section 167(1) of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999), or
 - (b) the Human Rights Convention (within the meaning given by that section).

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

Commencement Information

- I25 S. 13 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 65(1)

14 Handling articles for use in immigration crime

- (1) A person (“P”) commits an offence if, in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (2)—
 - (a) P receives or arranges to receive a relevant article from another person,
 - (b) P removes or disposes of a relevant article for the benefit of another person, or
 - (c) P assists another person to remove or dispose of a relevant article.
- (2) Those circumstances are where, at the time P does the act mentioned in subsection (1), P knows or suspects that the relevant article has been, is being, or is to be used by P or any other person in connection with an offence under section 24 or 25 of the Immigration Act 1971.
- (3) A person (“P”) commits an offence if, in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (4), P is concerned in—
 - (a) the receipt of, or the arranging to receive, a relevant article from another person, or
 - (b) the removal or disposal of a relevant article for the benefit of another person.
- (4) Those circumstances are where, at any time when P is concerned in an act as mentioned in subsection (3), P knows that the relevant article has been, is being, or is to be used by P or any other person in connection with an offence under section 24 or 25 of the Immigration Act 1971.
- (5) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under this section to show that they had a reasonable excuse for the action mentioned in subsection (1) or (3) (as the case may be).
- (6) The cases in which a person has a reasonable excuse for the purposes of subsection (5) include (but are not limited to) those in which—
 - (a) their action was for the purposes of carrying out a rescue of a person from danger or serious harm, or
 - (b) they were acting on behalf of an organisation which—
 - (i) aims to assist asylum-seekers, and
 - (ii) does not charge for its services.
- (7) A person is regarded as having shown that they had a reasonable excuse for their action if—
 - (a) sufficient evidence of that matter is adduced to raise an issue with respect to it, and
 - (b) the contrary is not proved beyond reasonable doubt.
- (8) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 14 years.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

15 Sections 13 and 14: meaning of “relevant article”

- (1) In sections 13 and 14 “relevant article” means any thing or substance, other than—
- (a) food or drink,
 - (b) anything designed for use in connection with the preparation, supply, consumption or storage of food or drink,
 - (c) a medicinal product or medical equipment,
 - (d) any thing or substance designed for use for the purposes of personal cleanliness or personal hygiene,
 - (e) clothing,
 - (f) bedding,
 - (g) a tent or other form of temporary shelter,
 - (h) anything designed solely or principally to preserve the life of a person in distress at sea, or
 - (i) anything designed solely or principally to enable a person in distress at sea to signal for help.
- (2) In subsection (1)—
- (a) paragraph (d) does not include—
 - (i) anything which is or includes a blade or sharp point,
 - (ii) any thing or substance in a glass container, or
 - (iii) any thing or substance in an aerosol container;
 - (b) paragraphs (g) and (h) do not include a vessel designed to be used for transportation by water.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend this section so as to—
- (a) add to the list of things and substances for the time being specified in subsection (1) as things and substances which are not relevant articles;
 - (b) make provision which is consequential on provision made under paragraph (a).

16 Collecting information for use in immigration crime

- (1) A person (“P”) commits an offence if, in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (2)—
- (a) P collects or makes a record of information of a kind likely to be useful to a person organising or preparing for a relevant journey or part of such a journey,
 - (b) P possesses a document or record containing information of that kind, or

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) P views, or otherwise accesses, by means of the internet a document or record containing information of that kind.
- (2) Those circumstances are where there is a reasonable suspicion that the record or document, or any information contained in it, will be used by P or any other person in organising or preparing for a relevant journey or part of such a journey.
- (3) The cases in which P collects or makes a record for the purposes of subsection (1)(a) include (but are not limited to) those in which P does so by means of the internet (whether by downloading the record or otherwise).
- (4) For the purposes of this section information may be useful for a particular purpose whether or not it may also be useful to members of the public at large for any purpose.
- (5) In this section “relevant journey” means a journey involving the transportation of one or more individuals from any place outside the United Kingdom to any place within the United Kingdom, where the entry of any of those individuals into the United Kingdom, or the arrival of any of those individuals in the United Kingdom, would constitute an offence under section 24 of the Immigration Act 1971.
- (6) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under this section to show that their action or possession was for the purposes of a journey to be made only by them.
- (7) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under this section to show that they had a reasonable excuse for the action or possession mentioned in subsection (1).
- (8) The cases in which a person has a reasonable excuse for the purposes of subsection (7) include (but are not limited to) those in which—
- (a) at the time of the person’s action or possession the person did not know, and had no reason to believe, that the document or record in question contained, or was likely to contain, information of a kind likely to be useful to a person organising or preparing for a relevant journey or part of such a journey,
 - (b) the person’s action or possession was for the purposes of—
 - (i) organising or preparing for a journey other than a relevant journey,
 - (ii) carrying out work as a journalist,
 - (iii) academic research,
 - (iv) carrying out, or preparing for the carrying out of, a rescue of a person from danger or serious harm, or
 - (v) providing, or preparing for the provision of, medical care or emergency shelter or supplies, or
 - (c) the person was acting on behalf of an organisation which—
 - (i) aims to assist asylum-seekers, and
 - (ii) does not charge for its services.
- (9) Where, in accordance with subsection (6) or (7), it is a defence for a person charged with an offence to show a particular matter, they are regarded as having shown the matter if—
- (a) sufficient evidence of that matter is adduced to raise an issue with respect to it, and
 - (b) the contrary is not proved beyond reasonable doubt.
- (10) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
 Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

(11) In this section “record” includes a photographic or electronic record.

17 Online advertising of unlawful immigration services

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
- (a) the person creates, or causes the creation of, material whose purpose is, or effect will be, to promote an unlawful immigration service, and
 - (b) the person knows or has reason to suspect—
 - (i) that the material will be published on an internet service, and
 - (ii) that the material has that purpose or will have that effect.
- (2) A person commits an offence if—
- (a) the person publishes material on an internet service or causes the publication of material on such a service,
 - (b) the purpose of the material is, or the effect of the material will be, to promote an unlawful immigration service, and
 - (c) the person knows or has reason to suspect—
 - (i) that they are publishing the material or (as the case may be) that they are causing its publication, and
 - (ii) that the material has that purpose or will have that effect.
- (3) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under this section to prove that the person’s action was for the purposes of—
- (a) carrying out, or facilitating the carrying out of, work as a journalist, or
 - (b) the publication of academic research.
- (4) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
- (a) on summary conviction in England and Wales, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates’ court or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on summary conviction in Scotland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both);
 - (c) on summary conviction in Northern Ireland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both);
 - (d) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years or a fine (or both).
- (5) In this section “material” means anything which consists of or includes—
- (a) text or moving or still images, or
 - (b) speech or music.
- (6) In this section—
- (a) “unlawful immigration service” means a service whose purpose is to facilitate the commission of—
 - (i) an offence under any of the Immigration Acts,

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) a breach of immigration law (other than such an offence), or
 - (iii) an offence under section 4, 5 or 6 of the Identity Documents Act 2010 in relation to an identity document within any of paragraphs (a) to (c) of section 7(1) of that Act,
 - whether by providing goods or services, or both, or anything else;
 - (b) “immigration law” has the meaning given by section 25(2) of the Immigration Act 1971.
- (7) In this section “publish” means make available to the public at large or any section of the public, whether or not in return for payment or any other form of consideration.
- (8) In this section “internet service” means a service that is made available by means of—
- (a) the internet, or
 - (b) a combination of the internet and an electronic communications service (as defined by section 32(2) of the Communications Act 2003).
- (9) This section is subject to section 18.

18 Application of section 17 to internet service providers

- (1) An internet service provider does not commit an offence under section 17 by—
- (a) providing access to a communication network, or
 - (b) transmitting, in a communication network, information provided by a user, if the provider does not—
 - (i) initiate the transmission,
 - (ii) select the recipient of the transmission, or
 - (iii) select or modify the information contained in the transmission.
- (2) The references in subsection (1) to providing access to, or transmitting information in, a communication network include storing the information transmitted so far as the storage—
- (a) is automatic, intermediate and transient,
 - (b) is solely for the purpose of carrying out the transmission in the network, and
 - (c) is for no longer than is reasonably necessary for the transmission.
- (3) An internet service provider does not commit an offence under section 17 by storing information provided by a user for transmission in a communication network if—
- (a) the storage of the information—
 - (i) is automatic, intermediate and temporary, and
 - (ii) is solely for the purpose of making more efficient the onward transmission of the information to other users at their request, and
 - (b) the internet service provider—
 - (i) does not modify the information,
 - (ii) complies with any conditions attached to having access to the information, and

- (iii) on obtaining actual knowledge of a matter within subsection (4), promptly removes the information or disables access to it.
- (4) The matters within this subsection are that—
- (a) the information at the initial source of the transmission has been removed from the network,
 - (b) access to it has been disabled, or
 - (c) a court or administrative authority has ordered the removal from the network of, or the disablement of access to, the information.
- (5) An internet service provider does not commit an offence under section 17 by storing information provided by a user who is not acting under the authority or control of the provider if—
- (a) the provider had no actual knowledge when the information was provided that it was, or contained, material whose purpose was, or effect would be, to promote an unlawful immigration service, and
 - (b) on obtaining actual knowledge that the information was, or contained, such material, the provider promptly removed the information or disabled access to it.
- (6) Section 17\(5\) and \(6\) applies for the purposes of this section.
- (7) In this section—
- “internet service provider” means a provider of—
- (a) a service that is made available by means of the internet, or
 - (b) a service that provides access to the internet;
- “user”, in relation to an internet service provider, means a user of a service provided by the internet service provider.

Endangering another during sea crossing to United Kingdom

21 Endangering another during sea crossing to United Kingdom

(1) Section 24 of the Immigration Act 1971 (illegal entry and similar offences) is amended in accordance with subsections (2) to (8).

(2) After subsection (E1) insert—

“(E1A) A person commits an offence under this subsection if—

- (a) the person commits an offence under subsection (A1), (B1), (D1) or (E1),
- (b) the person’s journey which resulted in their entry into, or arrival in, the United Kingdom as mentioned in subsection (A1), (B1), (D1) or (E1) (as the case may be) was a journey by water from France, Belgium or the Netherlands, and
- (c) at any time during the relevant period, the person did an act that caused, or created a risk of, the death of, or serious personal injury to, another person.

(E1B) For the purposes of subsection (E1A)(c) and this subsection—

- (a) “personal injury” means physical or psychological injury;
- (b) “the relevant period” means the period—
 - (i) beginning when the person first left dry land in France, Belgium or the Netherlands for the purpose of making the journey, and
 - (ii) ending when the person first reached dry land in the United Kingdom;
- (c) land is to be regarded as “dry land” at any particular time if it is not covered by water at that time.”

(3) In subsection (F1)—

- (a) in the words before paragraph (a), for “(E1)” substitute “(E1A)”;
- (b) in paragraph (d), after sub-paragraph (ii) insert—

“(iii) for an offence under subsection (E1A) committed in connection with an offence under subsection (A1), to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six years or a fine (or both);

(iv) for an offence under subsection (E1A) committed in connection with an offence under subsection (B1), (D1) or (E1), to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or a fine (or both).”

(4) In subsection (3), after “(E1)” insert “, (E1A)”.

(5) In subsection (4), for “under subsection (B1) above of” substitute “under subsection (B1) or (E1A) in relation to”.

(6) In subsection (5), for “under subsection (D1) above of” substitute “under subsection (D1) or (E1A) in relation to”.

(7) After subsection (5) insert—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

“(6) Subsection (E1A) applies to acts carried out inside or outside the United Kingdom.”

(8) After subsection (6) (as inserted by subsection (7)) insert—

“(7) If, on the trial of a person charged with an offence under subsection (E1A) in connection with the commission of an offence under subsection (A1), (B1), (D1) or (E1), a magistrates’ court, sheriff or jury finds the person not guilty of the offence charged, the magistrates’ court, sheriff or jury may find the person guilty of an offence under subsection (A1), (B1), (D1) or (E1) as the case may be.”

(9) In the Immigration Act 1971—

- (a) in section 28B(5) (search and arrest by warrant), after “(E1)” insert “, (E1A)”;
- (b) in section 28D(4) (entry and search of premises), after “(E1)” insert “, (E1A)”;
- (c) in section 28Q(1) (interpretation of Part 3A), in paragraph (a) of the definition of “relevant offence”, for “or (E1),” substitute “, (E1) or (E1A),”.

(10) In the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002—

- (a) in section 129(1) (duty on local authority to disclose information on suspected immigration offences), in paragraph (a), after “(E1)” insert “, (E1A)”;
- (b) in section 134(1) (duty on employer to disclose information on suspected immigration offences), in paragraph (a), after “(E1)” insert “, (E1A)”.

23 Powers of authorised officers to search for relevant articles

- (1) An authorised officer may search a relevant person for any relevant article if the officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that the relevant person is in possession of a relevant article.
- (2) An authorised officer may search a person under subsection (1) only if the person has not previously been searched under that subsection since the person’s entry or arrival as mentioned in section 22(3).
- (3) The power of an authorised officer to search a person under subsection \(1\)—
- (a) authorises the search of the person’s mouth, and
 - (b) authorises the officer to require the person to remove an outer coat, jacket or glove (but no other clothing).
- (4) An authorised officer may search property for any relevant article if the officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that the property—
- (a) is or has been in the possession of a relevant person, and
 - (b) contains or includes a relevant article.
- (5) An authorised officer may search premises for any relevant article if—
- (a) the officer is lawfully on the premises,
 - (b) the officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that a relevant article that is or has been in the possession of a relevant person is on the premises, and

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the relevant person was on the premises when, or immediately before, an authorised officer encountered the person.
- (6) An authorised officer may search a vehicle or container for any relevant article if—
- (a) the officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that a relevant article that is or has been in the possession of a relevant person is in the vehicle or container, and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) the officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that the relevant person was in the vehicle or container at the time of their arrival in the United Kingdom or at any time during a journey which ended with their arrival in the United Kingdom, or
 - (ii) the relevant person was in the vehicle or container when, or immediately before, an authorised officer encountered the person.
- (7) A constable may exercise a power to search under this section only if the search is authorised by a police officer of at least the rank of inspector.
- (8) If an inspector gives an authorisation under subsection \(7\), the inspector must, as soon as it is practicable to do so, cause an officer of at least the rank of superintendent to be informed.
- (9) An NCA officer may exercise a power to search under this section only if the search is authorised by an NCA officer at or above a grade that is equivalent to the rank of inspector.
- (10) If an NCA officer gives an authorisation under subsection \(9\), the NCA officer must, as soon as it is practicable to do so, cause an NCA officer at or above a grade that is equivalent to the rank of superintendent to be informed.
- (11) A constable or an NCA officer may use reasonable force, if necessary, in the exercise of a power under this section.
- (12) Paragraphs 21 and 22 of Schedule 5 to the Crime and Courts Act 2013 (offences of resistance, wilful obstruction and assault) apply in relation to an NCA officer exercising a power under this section as they apply in relation to a designated officer acting in the exercise of an operational power within the meaning of that Schedule.

24 Powers to seize and retain relevant articles

- (1) An authorised officer may seize any relevant article that—
 - (a) is found on a search carried out under section 23, or
 - (b) is not found on a search but appears to the officer to be, or to have been, in the possession of a relevant person.
- (2) A constable may seize a relevant article under subsection \(1\) only if the seizure of the article is authorised by a police officer of at least the rank of inspector.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) If an inspector gives an authorisation under subsection \(2\), the inspector must, as soon as it is practicable to do so, cause an officer of at least the rank of superintendent to be informed.
- (4) An NCA officer may seize a relevant article under subsection \(1\) only if the seizure of the article is authorised by an NCA officer at or above a grade that is equivalent to the rank of inspector.
- (5) If an NCA officer gives an authorisation under subsection \(4\), the NCA officer must, as soon as it is practicable to do so, cause an NCA officer at or above a grade that is equivalent to the rank of superintendent to be informed.
- (6) A constable or an NCA officer may use reasonable force, if necessary, in the exercise of a power under subsection \(1\).
- (7) Paragraphs 21 and 22 of Schedule 5 to the Crime and Courts Act 2013 (offences of resistance, wilful obstruction and assault) apply in relation to an NCA officer exercising a power under subsection \(1\) as they apply in relation to a designated officer acting in the exercise of an operational power within the meaning of that Schedule.
- (8) A relevant article seized by a constable or an NCA officer under subsection \(1\) may be given by a constable or an NCA officer to an immigration officer or the Secretary of State.
- (9) A relevant article seized under subsection \(1\) or given under subsection \(8\)—
 - (a) may be retained by an authorised officer or the Secretary of State for so long as the authorised officer or the Secretary of State considers its retention necessary—
 - (i) for the purposes of accessing, examining or copying information stored on the article as mentioned in section 26, or
 - (ii) for use in proceedings for an offence;
 - (b) must, subject to subsections \(8\) and \(11\) and section 25, be returned when paragraph \(a\) ceases to apply in relation to it.
- (10) A relevant article which must be returned in accordance with subsection \(9\)\(b\) must be returned—
 - (a) to the person from whom it was seized, or
 - (b) if there is no such person, to the person who an authorised officer reasonably believes was last in possession of the article before it was seized.
- (11) Subsection \(12\), \(13\), \(14\) or \(16\) applies (as the case may be) to a relevant article to which subsection \(9\)\(a\) ceases to apply if—
 - (a) there is no person to whom it can be returned in accordance with subsection \(10\), and
 - (b) it is not required to be dealt with in accordance with section 25.
- (12) If the relevant article is in the possession of an immigration officer or the Secretary of State, it must be disposed of in accordance with section 26 of the UK Borders Act 2007 and any regulations made under that section.
- (13) If the relevant article is in the possession of a constable of a police force maintained by a local policing body, or of an NCA officer, it must be disposed of in accordance with the Police (Property) Act 1897, and any regulations under that Act, as if it

25 Duty to pass on items seized under section 24

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) an immigration officer retains a relevant article under section 24(9)(a), and
 - (b) the immigration officer reasonably believes that the article or information stored on it has been obtained in consequence of the commission of, or is evidence in relation to, an offence other than an immigration offence (a “relevant offence”).
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the immigration officer must, as soon as is reasonably practicable after forming the belief mentioned in subsection (1)(b), notify a person who the immigration officer thinks has functions in relation to the investigation of the relevant offence.
- (3) If the immigration officer reasonably believes that the relevant article or information stored on it has also been obtained in consequence of the commission of, or is evidence in relation to, an immigration offence—
- (a) subsection (2) does not apply, and
 - (b) the immigration officer may notify a person who the immigration officer thinks has functions in relation to the investigation of the relevant offence.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) A person notified under this section that a relevant article is being retained by an immigration officer must, as soon as is reasonably practicable after being so notified, inform the immigration officer whether the person will accept the article.
- (5) The person may inform the immigration officer that the person will not accept the relevant article only if—
 - (a) the person does not think the article or information stored on it has been obtained in consequence of the commission of, or is evidence in relation to, an offence,
 - (b) the person does not have functions in relation to the investigation of the relevant offence, or
 - (c) the person thinks that it would be more appropriate for the relevant offence to be investigated by another person with such functions.
- (6) If the person informs the immigration officer that the person will accept the relevant article, the immigration officer must give it to the person as soon as is reasonably practicable.
- (7) Once the relevant article has been given as mentioned in subsection (6), any provision of an enactment which applies to items seized or taken away by the person applies to the article as if it had been seized or taken away by the person for the purposes of the investigation of the relevant offence.
- (8) If the person informs the immigration officer that the person will not accept the relevant article because subsection (5)(a) applies, the immigration officer must, as soon as is reasonably practicable, decide whether to continue to retain the relevant article under section 24(9).
- (9) If the person informs the immigration officer that the person will not accept the relevant article because subsection (5)(b) or (c) applies, the immigration officer must, as soon as is reasonably practicable—
 - (a) notify another person (if any) who the immigration officer thinks has functions in relation to the investigation of the relevant offence that the article is being retained by an immigration officer, or
 - (b) if there is no such person, decide whether to continue to retain the relevant article under section 24(9).
- (10) Where a relevant article to which this section applies or information stored on such an article has been obtained in consequence of the commission of, or is evidence in relation to, more than one offence other than an immigration offence, references in this section to the relevant offence are to any of those offences.
- (11) A function conferred or imposed by this section on an immigration officer may be exercised by any other immigration officer.
- (12) This section applies to a relevant article retained under section 24(9)(a) by the Secretary of State as it applies to a relevant article retained under that provision by an immigration officer.
- (13) In the application of this section by virtue of subsection (12), references to an immigration officer (other than in subsection (11)) are to be read as references to the Secretary of State.
- (14) In this section—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

“enactment” includes—

- (a) an enactment contained in subordinate legislation within the meaning of the Interpretation Act 1978,
- (b) an enactment contained in, or in an instrument made under, an Act of the Scottish Parliament,
- (c) an enactment contained in, or in an instrument made under, a Measure or Act of Senedd Cymru, and
- (d) an enactment contained in, or in an instrument made under, Northern Ireland legislation;

“immigration offence” means an offence which relates to an immigration or nationality matter.

Provision of biometric information by evacuees etc

37 Provision of biometric information by evacuees etc

- (1) An authorised person may take biometric information from a person to whom this section applies.
- (2) This section applies to a person if—
 - (a) the authorised person reasonably believes that, if the person were to seek to enter the United Kingdom, the person would require leave to do so (whether or not such leave has been given), and
 - (b) His Majesty’s Government is considering whether to facilitate, or is facilitating or has facilitated, the person’s departure from a state or territory.
- (3) An authorised person may not take biometric information from a child under the age of 16 except in the presence of a person aged 18 or over who is—
 - (a) the child’s parent or guardian, or
 - (b) a person who for the time being takes responsibility for the child.
- (4) The person mentioned in subsection (3)(b) may not be—
 - (a) an authorised person, or
 - (b) an officer of the Secretary of State who is not an authorised person.
- (5) Subsection (3) does not prevent an authorised person from taking biometric information from a child if the authorised person reasonably believes that the child is aged 16 or over.
- (6) In this section and section 38—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

“authorised person” means a person authorised by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this section;

“biometric information” has the meaning given by section 15(1A) of the UK Borders Act 2007.

- (7) References in this section and section 38 to the taking of biometric information from a person include the recording of biometric information about the person.

38 Use and retention of information taken under section 37

- (1) An authorised person who takes biometric information under section 37 must supply that information to the Secretary of State as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (2) Biometric information taken under section 37 may be used by the Secretary of State in connection with—
 - (a) the exercise of a function relating to immigration or nationality, or
 - (b) the exercise of a function relating to law enforcement or the protection of national security.
- (3) The Secretary of State may retain biometric information taken under section 37 only if the Secretary of State considers that it is necessary to retain the information for any use mentioned in subsection (2).
- (4) The Secretary of State must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the information is destroyed on or before the earliest of the following to occur—
 - (a) the Secretary of State no longer considering that it is necessary to retain the information for any use mentioned in subsection (2), and
 - (b) the end of the period of 5 years beginning with the day on which the information was taken.
- (5) But the requirement to destroy biometric information does not apply if and in so far as the information is retained under a power apart from subsection (3).
- (6) Biometric information retained by the Secretary of State by virtue of subsection (3) may also be used by the Secretary of State for the purpose of identifying a person whose departure His Majesty’s Government is considering whether to facilitate, or is facilitating or has facilitated, as mentioned in section 37(2)(b).
- (7) Where the Secretary of State’s use of biometric information under subsection (6) involves transferring that information to a third country or to an international organisation, the transfer is to be taken as being necessary for important reasons of public interest for the purposes of Article 49(1)(d) of the UK GDPR.
- (8) In subsection (7)—
 - “international organisation” and “third country” have the same meaning as in the UK GDPR (see Article 4 of the Regulation);

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

PROSPECTIVE

Employment

48 Extension of prohibition on employment to other working arrangements

- (1) The Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006 is amended as follows.
- (2) In the italic heading before section 15, after “Employment” insert “and other working arrangements”.
- (3) Before section 15, after the italic heading insert—

“14A Application of sections 15 to 24 to other working arrangements

- (1) In sections 15 to 24, a reference to a person employing another person includes a reference to—
 - (a) a person (“person A”) engaging an individual (“individual A”) under a worker’s contract,
 - (b) a person (“person B”) engaging an individual sub-contractor (“individual B”), and
 - (c) an online matching service (“person C”) providing the details of an individual who is a service provider (“individual C”) to potential clients or customers.
- (2) Accordingly—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) references in sections 15 to 24 to employment include engagement of the kind mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) or the provision of details as mentioned in paragraph (c) of that subsection;
- (b) references in those sections to an employer include person A, person B or person C;
- (c) references in those sections to an employee include individual A, individual B or individual C.

(3) In this section—

“worker’s contract” means a contract, other than a contract of service or apprenticeship, under which—

- (a) individual A undertakes to do or perform personally work or services for person A or another person (whether or not that other person is specified in the contract), and
- (b) person A is neither a client nor customer of any profession or business undertaking carried on by individual A;

“individual sub-contractor” means an individual (“individual B”) who has entered into a contract with person B to provide work or services in circumstances where person B has entered into a contract with a third party to provide, or arrange for the provision of, the work or services but individual B has not;

“online matching service” means a person who, in the course of a business—

- (a) keeps a register of service providers for the purpose of matching them with potential clients or customers,
- (b) provides an online service by which potential clients or customers can submit enquiries for the purpose of being matched with suitable service providers, and
- (c) charges a fee or commission in return for making such matches;

“service provider” means a person providing, or seeking to provide, work or services for remuneration.

(4) Subsection (1)(a), and subsection (2) so far as it has effect in consequence of subsection (1)(a), do not apply if and to the extent that—

- (a) under the worker’s contract, individual A undertakes to do or perform personally work or services for a person other than person A (whether or not that other person is specified in the contract), and
- (b) the status of a person for whom individual A does or performs work or services under the contract is that of a client or customer of a profession or business undertaking carried on by individual A.

(5) In this section a reference to a contract includes a contract that is express or implied and (if it is express) whether oral or in writing.

(6) This section is subject to subsection (2) of section 15A (which provides for subsection (1)(a) of that section not to apply in relation to an online matching service).”

(4) After section 15 insert—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

“15A Extension of liability under section 15

- (1) Subsection (4) applies where a person (“A”)—
 - (a) employs an individual to provide work or services, or
 - (b) is contracted to provide, or arrange for the provision of, work or services and enters into a contract under which another person is to provide, or arrange for the provision of, the work or services (or part of the work or services).
 - (2) The reference in subsection (1)(a) to A employing an individual does not include A doing so as mentioned in section 14A(1)(c) (online matching services).
 - (3) Subsection (4) also applies where—
 - (a) a person (“A”) is an online matching service who provides the details of another person who is a service provider to potential clients or customers, and
 - (b) as a result of being matched by person A, the service provider enters into a contract with a client or customer for the provision of work or services.
 - (4) For the purposes of section 15, and where this would not otherwise be the case, A is to be treated as employing any individual (“B”) who personally provides the work or services (or any part of the work or services), including where—
 - (a) A is not in a contractual relationship with B, or
 - (b) A does not know that B is providing the work or services (or part of the work or services).
 - (5) Subsection (4) applies where A is contracted to provide, or arrange for the provision of, the work or services regardless of whether that contract is the first or any other contract in a chain of contracts to provide, or arrange for the provision of, the work or services (or part of the work or services).
 - (6) This section does not affect the liability of any other employer under section 15.
 - (7) In sections 15, 16, 17, 23 and 24 a reference to a person employing another person includes a reference to a person who is treated as doing so by virtue of subsection (4); and references in those sections to employment, employers and employees are to be construed accordingly.
 - (8) In this section “online matching service” and “service provider” have the same meaning as in section 14A.”
- (5) In section 25—
- (a) in paragraph (b), at the beginning insert “subject to sections 14A and 15A,”,
 - (b) in paragraph (b), omit from “whether” to the end of the paragraph, and
 - (c) after that paragraph insert—
 - “(ba) a reference to a contract includes a contract that is express or implied and (if it is express) whether oral or in writing.”.

PART 3

PREVENTION OF SERIOUS CRIME

PROSPECTIVE

Offences relating to things for use in serious crime

52 Articles for use in serious crime

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person possesses a relevant article in circumstances which give rise to a reasonable suspicion that the relevant article will be used in connection with any serious offence.
- (2) A person commits an offence if the person imports, makes, adapts, supplies or offers to supply a relevant article in circumstances which give rise to a reasonable suspicion that the relevant article will be used in connection with any serious offence.
- (3) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under this section to show that the person did not intend or suspect that the relevant article would be used in connection with any serious offence.
- (4) In proceedings for an offence under this section, if it is proved that a relevant article—
 - (a) was on any premises at the same time as the accused, or
 - (b) was on premises of which the accused was the occupier or which the accused habitually used otherwise than as a member of the public, the court may assume that the accused possessed the relevant article, unless the accused shows that they did not know of its presence on the premises or that they had no control over it.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies where—
 - (a) in accordance with subsection (3), it is a defence for a person charged with an offence to show a particular matter, or
 - (b) in accordance with subsection (4), a court may make an assumption in relation to a person charged with an offence unless the person shows a particular matter.
- (6) A person is regarded as having shown the matter if—
 - (a) sufficient evidence of the matter is adduced to raise an issue with respect to it, and
 - (b) the contrary is not proved beyond reasonable doubt.
- (7) In this section—

“relevant article” has the meaning given by section 53;

“serious offence” means—

 - (a) in England and Wales, an offence specified or described in Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Serious Crime Act 2007;
 - (b) in Scotland, an offence specified or described in Part 1A of that Schedule;
 - (c) in Northern Ireland, an offence specified or described in Part 2 of that Schedule.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
- (a) on summary conviction in England and Wales, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates' court or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on summary conviction in Scotland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both);
 - (c) on summary conviction in Northern Ireland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both);
 - (d) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years or a fine (or both).

53 Section 52: meaning of “relevant article”

- (1) In section 52 “relevant article” means any of the following—
- (a) a 3D printer firearms template;
 - (b) an encapsulator;
 - (c) a tablet press;
 - (d) a vehicle concealment.
- (2) In this section—
- “3D printer firearms template” means any document that may be used in conjunction with a 3D printer to produce any part of a firearm (as defined by section 57 of the Firearms Act 1968 or, in Northern Ireland, Article 2(2) of the Firearms (Northern Ireland) Order 2004 (S.I. 2004/702 \(N.I. 3\)));
- “document” includes information recorded in any form;
- “encapsulator” includes any device that may be used to produce capsules;
- “tablet press” includes any device that may be used to produce tablets;
- “vehicle” has the meaning given by section 1(1) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979;
- “vehicle concealment” means a compartment that—
- (a) forms or is intended to form part of a vehicle or is attached or intended to be attached to a vehicle, and
 - (b) conceals, or facilitates the concealment of, things or people or is intended to conceal or facilitate the concealment of things or people.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend this section (other than this subsection or subsection \(4\) or \(5\)).
- (4) But regulations under subsection \(3\) that add an article to subsection \(1\) may be made only if the Secretary of State considers that there is a significant risk of such an article being used in connection with any serious offence.
- “Serious offence” has the same meaning as in section 52.
- (5) Before making regulations under subsection \(3\), the Secretary of State must consult—
- (a) the Scottish Ministers, and
 - (b) the Department of Justice in Northern Ireland.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

Serious crime prevention orders

55 Electronic monitoring requirements

(1) The Serious Crime Act 2007 is amended as follows.

(2) After section 5A insert—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

“Electronic monitoring requirements

5B Electronic monitoring requirements

- (1) A serious crime prevention order made by a court in England and Wales may require an individual (including a partner in a partnership) to submit to electronic monitoring of their compliance with prohibitions, restrictions or other requirements imposed by the order.
- (2) A requirement imposed under subsection (1) is referred to in this Part as an “electronic monitoring requirement”.
- (3) A serious crime prevention order that includes an electronic monitoring requirement must specify the person who is to be responsible for the monitoring.
- (4) The person specified under subsection (3) (“the responsible person”) must be of a description specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (5) Where a serious crime prevention order imposes an electronic monitoring requirement on a person, the person must (among other things)—
 - (a) submit, as required from time to time by the responsible person, to—
 - (i) being fitted with, or the installation of, any necessary apparatus, and
 - (ii) the inspection or repair of any apparatus fitted or installed for the purpose of the monitoring;
 - (b) not interfere with, or with the working of, any apparatus fitted or installed for the purpose of the monitoring;
 - (c) take any steps required by the responsible person for the purpose of keeping in working order any apparatus fitted or installed for the purpose of the monitoring.

These obligations have effect as requirements of the order.

- (6) A serious crime prevention order may not provide for an electronic monitoring requirement to have effect for more than 12 months (but this does not limit any power of a court to extend that period).

5C Conditions for imposing electronic monitoring requirements

- (1) This section applies for the purpose of determining whether a court may impose an electronic monitoring requirement on a person (“P”) under section 5B.
- (2) The requirement may not be imposed in P’s absence.
- (3) If there is a person (other than P) without whose co-operation it would be impracticable to secure the monitoring in question, the requirement may not be imposed without that person’s consent.
- (4) A court may impose the requirement in relation to a relevant police area or areas only if—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) it has been notified by the Secretary of State that electronic monitoring arrangements are available in the area or areas, and
- (b) it is satisfied that the necessary provision can be made under the arrangements currently available.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4)—

“relevant police area” means—

- (a) the police area in England or Wales in which it appears to the court that P resides or will reside, and
- (b) in a case where it is proposed to include in the order—
 - (i) a requirement that P must remain, for specified periods, at a specified place, or
 - (ii) a provision prohibiting P from entering a specified place or area,

the police area in England or Wales in which the place or area proposed to be specified is situated;

“specified” means specified in the order.

5D Data from electronic monitoring: code of practice

- (1) The Secretary of State must issue a code of practice relating to the processing of data gathered in the course of electronic monitoring of individuals under electronic monitoring requirements imposed by serious crime prevention orders.
- (2) A failure to act in accordance with a code issued under this section does not of itself make a person liable to any criminal or civil proceedings.”
- (3) In section 17 (variation of orders), after subsection \(8\) insert—
 - “(9) But, in the case of an order made by a court in England and Wales, the High Court in England and Wales may not extend the period for which an electronic monitoring requirement has effect by more than 12 months at a time.”
- (4) In section 20 (powers of Crown Court to vary orders on conviction), after subsection \(7\) insert—
 - “(8) But, in the case of an order made by a court in England and Wales, the Crown Court in England and Wales may not extend the period for which an electronic monitoring requirement has effect by more than 12 months at a time.”
- (5) In section 21 (powers of Crown Court to vary or replace orders on breach), after subsection \(7\) insert—
 - “(7A) But, in the case of an order made by a court in England and Wales, the Crown Court in England and Wales may not extend the period for which an electronic monitoring requirement has effect by more than 12 months at a time.”
- (6) In section 89 (orders)—
 - (a) in the heading, after “Orders” insert “and regulations”;
 - (b) in each of subsections \(1\) and \(2\), after “order” insert “or regulations”.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

PROSPECTIVE

56 Interim serious crime prevention orders

- (1) The Serious Crime Act 2007 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 5D (inserted by section 55) insert—

“Interim serious crime prevention orders

5E Interim serious crime prevention orders

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) an application to the High Court in England and Wales for a serious crime prevention order has not been determined, or
 - (b) an application to the appropriate court in Scotland or the High Court in Northern Ireland for a serious crime prevention order that is terrorism-related (see section 8A) has not been determined.
- (2) The court may, if it considers it just to do so, make an interim serious crime prevention order in relation to the person.
- (3) An interim serious crime prevention order may contain such prohibitions, restrictions or requirements, and such other terms, as the court considers appropriate to protect the public by preventing, restricting or disrupting involvement by the person in serious crime—
 - (a) in England and Wales, in the case of an order made by the High Court in England and Wales;
 - (b) in Scotland, in the case of an order made by the appropriate court in Scotland;
 - (c) in Northern Ireland, in the case of an order made by the High Court in Northern Ireland.
- (4) Sections 5 to 5D apply in relation to an interim serious crime prevention order as they apply in relation to a serious crime prevention order.
- (5) An interim serious crime prevention order in relation to a person may be made only where the application for the order is made at the same time as, or after, the main application is made.
- (6) In this Part—

“interim serious crime prevention order” means an order under this section;

“main application”, in relation to an interim serious crime prevention order, means the application mentioned in subsection (1).

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) For the purposes of this Part references to the person who is the subject of an interim serious crime prevention order are references to the person against whom the public is to be protected.

5F Without notice applications

- (1) An application for an interim serious crime prevention order, or for the variation of an interim serious crime prevention order, may be made without notice being given to the person against whom the order is to be made in circumstances where notice of the application is likely to prejudice the outcome sought by the applicant.
- (2) Where the court makes an interim serious crime prevention order in relation to a person (“P”) in a case where the application for the order was made without notice, the court must give P an opportunity to make representations about the order—
- (a) as soon as reasonably practicable, and
 - (b) at a hearing of which notice has been given to P in accordance with rules of court.
- (3) Where a person (whether P or another) makes an application for an interim serious crime prevention order made without notice to be varied or discharged, the court may not dismiss the application unless the person has been given an opportunity to make representations about the order at a hearing of which notice has been given to the person in accordance with rules of court.”

- (3) After section 8A insert—

“8AA Relevant applicant authority to apply for interim order

An interim serious crime prevention order may be made only on an application by the relevant applicant authority (see section 10) in relation to the main application.”

- (4) After section 10 insert—

“10A Notice requirements in relation to interim orders

- (1) A person who is the subject of an interim serious crime prevention order (“P”) is bound by it or a variation of it only if—
- (a) P is represented (whether in person or otherwise) at the proceedings at which the order or (as the case may be) variation is made, or
 - (b) a notice setting out the terms of the order or (as the case may be) variation has been served on P in accordance with subsections (2) to (4).
- (2) The notice must be served on P—
- (a) as soon as reasonably practicable after the order or variation is made, and in any event no later than the end of the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which the order or variation is made;
 - (b) by delivering it to P in person, unless the court provides otherwise under subsection (4).

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) For the purposes of delivering such a notice to P in person, a constable or a person authorised for the purpose by the relevant applicant authority may (if necessary by force)—
- (a) enter any premises where the constable or authorised person has reasonable grounds for believing P to be, and
 - (b) search those premises for P.
- (4) Where it has not been possible to deliver the notice to P in person, the notice may be served on P using such other method of service as the court may allow.”
- (5) In section 16 (duration of orders), after subsection \(4\) insert—
- “(4A) An interim serious crime prevention order ceases to be in force—
- (a) on the date or dates specified in the order, or
 - (b) if earlier, on the determination of the main application.”
- (6) In section 25\(1\) (offence of failing to comply with order), after “order” insert “or an interim serious crime prevention order”.
- (7) Schedule 2 contains related amendments to the Serious Crime Act 2007.

“Notification requirements: England and Wales

15A Notification requirements: England and Wales

- (1) Schedule 1A contains provision about notifications to be given by a person who is subject to a serious crime prevention order in England and Wales (a “relevant order”).
- (2) A relevant order—
 - (a) must specify a person listed in section 8(1)(a) as the person to whom a notification under Schedule 1A is to be given;
 - (b) may make provision about how a notification under Schedule 1A is to be given (including provision requiring a person to give a notification in person or otherwise).
- (3) In this Part references to a “specified person” are to a person specified under subsection (2)(a).”
- (3) After Schedule 1 insert—

“SCHEDULE 1A

Section 15A

RELEVANT ORDERS: NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

Notification requirements for persons other than individuals

- 1 (1) Where a person other than an individual is subject to a relevant order that person (“P”) must, within the period of three days beginning with the first day on which any provision of the order comes into force, notify the specified person of the name of an authorised individual.
- (2) In this paragraph “authorised individual” means an individual who—
 - (a) is authorised by P to communicate with the specified person in relation to P’s compliance with the order, and
 - (b) has consented to act in that capacity.
- (3) P may, at any time after notifying the specified person of the name of an authorised individual under this paragraph, notify the specified person of the name of a replacement authorised individual.
- (4) Where an individual whose name is notified by P under this paragraph ceases to be an authorised individual P must, within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the individual ceases to be an authorised individual, notify the specified person of the name of a replacement authorised individual.

Notification requirements for individuals

- 2 (1) An individual who is subject to a relevant order must, within the period of three days beginning with the first day on which any of the provisions of the order comes into force, notify the specified person of the notifiable information relating to the individual.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) If there is a change in any of the notifiable information relating to an individual who has given a notification under this paragraph the individual must, within the period of three days beginning with the day on which the change occurs, notify the specified person of the change.
- (3) A requirement to notify information under sub-paragraph (1) or (2) does not apply to an individual by virtue of a relevant order whilst the individual is required to notify that information to that person by virtue of an earlier relevant order.
- (4) If the earlier order ceases to be in force on a day on which the later order remains in force, the reference in sub-paragraph (1) to the first day on which any of the provisions of the order comes into force is to be read as a reference to that day.
- (5) In this paragraph “the notifiable information” relating to an individual means—
 - (a) their name and, if they use one or more other names, each of those names;
 - (b) the address of their sole or main residence in the United Kingdom and the address of any other premises in the United Kingdom at which they regularly reside or stay;
 - (c) each of their telephone numbers and email addresses (if any);
 - (d) any name which they use to access a social media service or the function of which is to identify the user of such a service;
 - (e) any name—
 - (i) which they use to access a video game that is a user-to-user service or that is available as part of a user-to-user service, or
 - (ii) the function of which is to identify them as the user of such a game;
 - (f) identifying information relating to any motor vehicle of which they are the registered keeper, or which they have a right to use (whether routinely or on specific occasions or for specific purposes);
 - (g) specified financial information;
 - (h) specified information about identification documents;
 - (i) the name and address of each of their employers (if any);
 - (j) any information of a description specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (6) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (5)—
 - (a) where the individual does not have a sole or main residence in the United Kingdom, paragraph (b) of that sub-paragraph is to be read as if it refers to the address or location of a place in the United Kingdom where they can regularly be found (and, if there is more than one such place, the address or location of each of those places);
 - (b) “social media service” means an online service that meets the following conditions—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (i) the main purpose, or one of the main purposes, of the service is to promote interaction between users (including interaction between users and user-generated content), and
- (ii) making content generated by users available to other users is a significant feature of the service;
- (c) “specified financial information” means the information specified in paragraph 1\(1\)\(a\) and \(b\) of Schedule 3A to the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008;
- (d) “specified information about identification documents” means the information specified in paragraph 2\(a\) and \(b\) of that Schedule;

- “4AA (1) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing to a registered person, suspend the person’s registration from the time specified in the notice if—
- (a) the Commissioner has reason to suspect that the registered person is acting or has acted in a way which—
 - (i) creates a risk of serious harm to persons seeking immigration advice or immigration services, or
 - (ii) creates a risk of serious harm to the system of immigration control in the United Kingdom, and
 - (b) accordingly, the Commissioner considers it is necessary to suspend the person’s registration.
- (2) The Commissioner—
- (a) may, by notice in writing to a person whose registration has been suspended under sub-paragraph (1), cancel the suspension of the person’s registration, and
 - (b) must do so if the Commissioner is no longer satisfied that paragraph (a) or (b) of that sub-paragraph applies in relation to that person.
- (3) If a person’s registration has been suspended under sub-paragraph (1), the Commissioner must consider whether the suspension should be cancelled—
- (a) before the end of the period of 7 working days beginning with the working day after the day on which the Commissioner issued the notice of the suspension, and
 - (b) before the end of each subsequent period of 7 working days.
- (4) A person whose registration is suspended under sub-paragraph (1) may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against the suspension.
- (5) For the purposes of this paragraph, conduct creates a risk of serious harm to the system of immigration control in the United Kingdom if, in particular, it involves—
- (a) abuse of a procedure operating in the United Kingdom in connection with immigration or asylum (including any appellate or other judicial procedure), or
 - (b) advice to any person to do something which would amount to such an abuse.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- (6) In this paragraph “working day” means a day other than a Saturday, a Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday or a bank holiday under the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971 in any part of the United Kingdom.”
- (3) In paragraph 4B—
- (a) for sub-paragraph (1) substitute—
- “(1) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing to a registered person, suspend the person’s registration from the time specified in the notice if the person is charged with—
- (a) an offence involving dishonesty or deception,
- (b) an indictable offence, or
- (c) an offence under section 25 or 26(1)(d) or (g) of the 1971 Act.
- (1A) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing to a person whose registration has been suspended under sub-paragraph (1), cancel the suspension of the person’s registration.
- (1B) A person whose registration is suspended under sub-paragraph (1) may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against the suspension.”,
- (b) in sub-paragraph (2), in the opening words, for “The suspension” substitute “Otherwise, the suspension under sub-paragraph (1)”, and
- (c) omit sub-paragraphs (5) to (7).
- (4) After paragraph 4B insert—
- “4C (1) A person whose registration is suspended under paragraph 4AA or 4B is not to be treated as a registered person for the purposes of section 84 (but is to be treated as a registered person for the purposes of the other provisions of this Part).
- (2) Where a person’s registration is suspended under paragraph 4AA or 4B the Commissioner must as soon as reasonably practicable record the suspension in the register.
- (3) Where a suspension under paragraph 4AA or 4B ceases to have effect (and the person’s registration is not cancelled) the Commissioner must as soon as reasonably practicable remove the record of suspension from the register.”

Provision of immigration advice or immigration services under supervision

- 7 In section 84 (provision of immigration services), after subsection (3B) insert—
- “(3C) A person’s entitlement to provide immigration advice or immigration services by virtue of subsection (2)(e) is subject to section 84A and regulations under section 84B.”

Commencement Information

I119 Sch. 1 para. 7 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 65(1)

- 8 After section 84 insert—

“84A Limitations on acting under supervision: sanctions under this Part

- (1) A person (“P”) is not entitled to provide immigration advice or immigration services by virtue of section 84(2)(e) (persons acting under supervision) if—
- P is disqualified under paragraph 4 of Schedule 6 (conviction of certain immigration offences) for registration under paragraph 2 of that Schedule or continued registration under paragraph 3 of that Schedule,
 - P’s registration is suspended under paragraph 4AA of Schedule 6 (suspension on grounds of risk of serious harm), or
 - P’s registration is suspended under paragraph 4B of Schedule 6 (suspension of persons charged with particular offences).
- (2) A person (“P”) is not entitled to provide immigration advice or immigration services by virtue of section 84(2)(e) during the relevant period if—
- P’s registration has been cancelled under paragraph 4A(e) of Schedule 6 (cancellation for lack of competence etc), and
 - the cancellation took effect before the end of the period mentioned in subsection (3A) of section 87 because condition A in subsection (3AB) of that section (risk of serious harm) was met in relation to P.
- (3) In subsection (2) “the relevant period” means the period of 12 months beginning with the time specified in the notice under section 87(3AB) as the time at which the decision to cancel P’s registration had effect.
- (4) Subsection (2) does not apply if—
- the Commissioner decides to register P or to continue P’s registration, or
 - the cancellation of P’s registration is overturned on appeal (unless the cancellation is subsequently reinstated as a result of a further appeal).
- (5) A person (“P”) is not entitled to provide immigration advice or immigration services by virtue of section 84(2)(e) if—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

*Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
 Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)*

- (a) P’s registration has been cancelled under paragraph 4A(e) of Schedule 6, and
 - (b) the cancellation took effect before the end of the period mentioned in subsection (3A) of section 87 because condition B in subsection (3AC) of that section (conviction of particular offences) was met in relation to P.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not apply if—
- (a) P’s conviction of the offence mentioned in section 87(3AC) is quashed or set aside,
 - (b) the Commissioner decides to register P or to continue P’s registration, or
 - (c) the cancellation of P’s registration is overturned on appeal (unless the cancellation is subsequently reinstated as a result of a further appeal).
- (7) A person (“P”) other than a person to whom subsection (1), (2) or (5) applies is not entitled to provide immigration advice or immigration services by virtue of section 84(2)(e) if—
- (a) subsection (8) applied to P when P entered into the arrangement for supervision, and
 - (b) P did not inform the person by whom P was to be supervised of that fact before entering into that arrangement.
- (8) This subsection applies to P if—
- (a) P is or has previously been subject to a direction by the First-tier Tribunal under section 89(2A)(a) (directions in connection with registration),
 - (b) P is or has previously been subject to a direction by the First-tier Tribunal under section 89(8)(a) (restrictions on provision of immigration advice or immigration services),
 - (c) P has previously been subject to a direction by the First-tier Tribunal under section 89(8)(b) (suspension from provision of immigration advice or immigration services),
 - (d) P is or has previously been subject to an order made by a disciplinary body under section 90(1)(a) (restrictions on provision of immigration advice or immigration services),
 - (e) P has previously been subject to an order made by a disciplinary body under section 90(1)(b) (suspension from provision of immigration advice or immigration services),
 - (f) P has at any time been given a penalty notice under section 92C (power to impose monetary penalties),
 - (g) P’s registration has at any time been cancelled under paragraph 6(3)(a) of Schedule 5 (failure to assist with investigation),
 - (h) P’s registration has at any time been cancelled under paragraph 10A(7) or (8) of Schedule 5 (failure to allow access to premises etc),
 - (i) P’s registration has at any time been cancelled under paragraph 4A(d) or (e) of Schedule 6 (cancellation following direction by First-tier Tribunal or for lack of competence etc),
 - (j) P’s registration has previously been suspended under paragraph 4AA of Schedule 6, or

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (k) P’s registration has previously been suspended under paragraph 4B of Schedule 6.
- (9) Subsection (7) does not apply if, before the time mentioned in subsection (7) (a), the direction, order, penalty, cancellation or suspension referred to in subsection (8)—
 - (a) had been reversed, cancelled or quashed,
 - (b) had been overturned on appeal (and had not subsequently been reinstated as a result of a further appeal), or
 - (c) in the case of suspension under paragraph 4B of Schedule 6, had ceased to have effect by virtue of sub-paragraph (2) of that paragraph.

84B Limitations on acting under supervision: other sanctions

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that a person is not entitled to provide immigration advice or immigration services by virtue of section 84(2)(e) where—
 - (a) the person is subject to a professional sanction of a kind specified in the regulations, or
 - (b) in the circumstances specified in the regulations, the person is disqualified or suspended from practice as a member of a relevant profession.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that a person (“P”) is not entitled to provide immigration advice or immigration services by virtue of section 84(2)(e) where—
 - (a) when P entered into the arrangement for supervision—
 - (i) P was or had previously been subject to a professional sanction of a kind specified in the regulations, or
 - (ii) in the circumstances specified in the regulations, P was or had previously been disqualified or suspended from practice as a member of a relevant profession, and
 - (b) P did not inform the person by whom P was to be supervised of that fact before entering into the arrangement for supervision.
- (3) In this section—
 - “professional sanction” means an order, direction or decision which is imposed, given or made by, or other action which is taken by—
 - (a) a designated professional body,
 - (b) a designated qualifying regulator,
 - (c) a relevant disciplinary body,
 - (d) an Inn of Court, or
 - (e) a judge, court or tribunal in the exercise of a function in relation to the provision of legal services;
 - “relevant disciplinary body” means a body established wholly or partly for the purpose of exercising disciplinary functions in relation to—
 - (a) members of a designated professional body, or
 - (b) persons regulated by a designated qualifying regulator;

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

“relevant profession” means a profession which is regulated by a designated professional body or a designated qualifying regulator.”

Monetary penalties

9 After section 92B insert—

“92C Power to impose monetary penalties

- (1) The Commissioner may give a relevant person a penalty notice if the Commissioner is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the relevant person—
 - (a) has failed to comply with—
 - (i) the duty imposed on the person by paragraph 3(4) of Schedule 5 (duty to comply with Code of Standards) or paragraph 6(2) of that Schedule (duty to assist with investigation of complaint), or
 - (ii) any other requirement imposed on the person by or under this Part, or
 - (b) has, without reasonable excuse, obstructed the Commissioner in the exercise of the Commissioner’s functions under paragraph 4A of Schedule 5 (power to carry out inspections).
- (2) In this section “relevant person”, in relation to the giving of a penalty notice, means a person who was a registered person at the time of the act or omission in relation to which the notice is given.
- (3) A penalty notice is a notice requiring the person to whom it is given to pay to the Commissioner—
 - (a) an amount specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State (a “fixed penalty notice”), or
 - (b) an amount specified by the Commissioner in the notice (a “variable penalty notice”).
- (4) The Commissioner may give a person who is not a relevant person a penalty notice if the Commissioner is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the person has failed to comply with the duty imposed on the person by paragraph 6(2) of Schedule 5.
- (5) The Commissioner may give an unqualified person a penalty notice if the Commissioner is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the person has committed an offence under section 91 or 92B.
- (6) In subsection (5) “unqualified person”, in relation to the giving of a penalty notice, means a person who was not a qualified person at the time of the act or omission in relation to which the notice is given.
- (7) An amount specified in regulations under subsection (3)(a), and the amount specified in a variable penalty notice, must not exceed—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) in the case of a penalty imposed on a person under subsection (5) in relation to the commission of an offence under section 92B, the maximum amount of the fine that could be imposed on the person on summary conviction for the offence;
 - (b) in any other case, £15,000.
- (8) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend the amount for the time being specified in subsection (7)(b).
- (9) In this section and sections 92D to 92H—
- “penalty notice” means a notice under this section;
 - “fixed penalty notice” and “variable penalty notice” have the meanings given by subsection (3).

92D Procedure for imposing penalties

- (1) Before giving a penalty notice to a person the Commissioner must notify the person of the Commissioner’s intention to do so.
- (2) The notice under subsection (1) must—
 - (a) specify the proposed amount of the penalty,
 - (b) specify the Commissioner’s reasons for proposing to impose the penalty,
 - (c) specify the period during which the person may make representations about the proposal (“the specified period”), and
 - (d) specify the way in which those representations may be made.
- (3) The specified period must not be less than 28 days beginning with the date on which the notice under subsection (1) is given.
- (4) The Commissioner must have regard to any representations made by a person during the specified period in deciding—
 - (a) whether to give a penalty notice to the person, and
 - (b) if the Commissioner decides to give a variable penalty notice to the person, the amount of the penalty specified in the notice.
- (5) Where the Commissioner gives a penalty notice to a person, the notice must specify—
 - (a) the amount of the penalty, and
 - (b) the period within which the penalty must be paid (“the payment period”).
- (6) The penalty notice must also contain information as to—
 - (a) the grounds for the penalty,
 - (b) how payment may be made,
 - (c) the details of any early payment discount or late payment penalty included by virtue of subsection (7),
 - (d) the consequences of non-payment,
 - (e) rights of appeal, and
 - (f) the period within which an appeal may be made.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) The penalty notice may include provision for the amount payable under the notice—
- (a) to reduce in the event of early payment;
 - (b) to increase in the event of payment after the end of the payment period.

92E Appeals against penalties

- (1) A person to whom a penalty notice has been given may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against—
 - (a) the decision to give the person a penalty notice;
 - (b) where the notice given is a variable penalty notice, the amount of the penalty specified in the notice.
- (2) On an appeal under this section, the Tribunal may—
 - (a) cancel the penalty,
 - (b) confirm the requirement to pay the penalty, or
 - (c) in the case of an appeal under subsection (1)(b), amend the amount of the penalty.
- (3) The requirement to pay the penalty under the notice is suspended at any time when—
 - (a) an appeal under this section could be brought by the person in respect of the penalty, or
 - (b) such an appeal is pending.
- (4) But subsection (3)(a) does not prevent the requirement to pay taking effect if the person notifies the Commissioner that the person does not intend to appeal.
- (5) No further amount is payable as a result of provision included in the penalty notice by virtue of section 92D(7)(b) in respect of the period during which the requirement to pay is suspended.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (3)(b) an appeal is pending during the period—
 - (a) starting when the appeal is brought, and
 - (b) ending when the appeal is finally determined, abandoned or withdrawn.

92F Enforcement of penalty notices

- (1) This section applies if a person who is liable to pay an amount to the Commissioner under a penalty notice has not paid the whole or any part of that amount when it is required to be paid.
- (2) In England and Wales the Commissioner may recover the unpaid amount on the order of the county court as if it were payable under an order of that court.
- (3) In Scotland payment of the unpaid amount may be enforced in the same manner as an extract registered decree arbitral bearing a warrant for execution issued by the sheriff court of any sheriffdom in Scotland.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) In Northern Ireland the Commissioner may recover the unpaid amount on the order of a county court as if it were payable under an order of that court.

92G Guidance about penalties

- (1) The Commissioner must prepare and publish guidance about the Commissioner’s use of the power to give a penalty notice.
- (2) The guidance must, in particular, include information as to—
- (a) the circumstances in which the Commissioner is likely to give—
 - (i) a fixed penalty notice, or
 - (ii) a variable penalty notice, and
 - (b) in the case of a variable penalty notice, the matters to which the Commissioner has regard in determining the amount of the penalty.
- (3) The Commissioner—
- (a) must from time to time review the guidance, and
 - (b) may revise and republish the guidance following a review.
- (4) Before preparing or revising guidance under this section, the Commissioner must consult such persons as the Commissioner considers appropriate.

92H Penalties imposed in relation to commission of offence: convictions

A person who is required to pay a penalty under a penalty notice given under section 92C(5) (penalty in respect of offence under section 91 or 92B) may not at any time be convicted of an offence under section 91 or, as the case may be, 92B in respect of the act or omission in relation to which the notice was given.”

Fees

- 12 After section 93 insert—

“93A Fees

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order provide for fees to be charged by the Commissioner in respect of the exercise of the Commissioner’s functions.
- (2) The order may, in particular, make provision—
 - (a) for fees (including fees for the taking of examinations) to be charged in respect of the assessment of a person’s competence to provide immigration advice or immigration services;
 - (b) for fees to be charged in respect of a person’s registration or continued registration;
 - (c) for fees to be charged for making changes to a person’s registration;
 - (d) for fees to be charged in respect of the provision by the Commissioner of training for persons providing or seeking to provide immigration advice or immigration services;
 - (e) for fees to be charged in respect of the provision by the Commissioner of, or of access to, training or other material for such persons;
 - (f) for fees to be charged in respect of the provision by the Commissioner of events for such persons;
 - (g) for fees to be charged in respect of the accreditation by the Commissioner of training or events for such persons;
 - (h) for fees to be charged in respect of the provision of advice by the Commissioner;
 - (i) for, and in connection with, requiring or authorising the Commissioner to waive all or part of a fee in particular cases.
- (3) The order may result in the charging of a fee in respect of the exercise of a function in a particular case which exceeds the costs of exercising the function in that case.
- (4) But in specifying the amount of a fee by virtue of subsection (3) the Secretary of State may have regard only to either or both of the following—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the costs of exercising the function in question;
 - (b) the costs of exercising any other function of the Commissioner.
- (5) References in subsection (4) to the costs of exercising a function are to the costs of doing so in a particular class of case or in all cases.
- (6) In this section “registration” means registration with the Commissioner under section 85.”

The complaints scheme

14 (1) Schedule 5 is amended as follows.

(2) In paragraph 5(3), after paragraph (b) insert—

“(ba) the provision of immigration advice or immigration services by a person in contravention of section 84.”.

(3) In paragraph 6—

(a) in sub-paragraph (2) for “is the subject of an investigation under the scheme” substitute “falls within sub-paragraph (2A)”;

(b) after sub-paragraph (2) insert—

“(2A) A person (“P”) falls within this sub-paragraph if—

(a) P is the subject of an investigation under the scheme, or

(b) in a case where the person who is the subject of an investigation under the scheme is a relevant body, P—

(i) was an officer, member or partner of the body when the body provided the immigration advice or immigration services to which the complaint relates, but

(ii) is no longer such an officer, member or partner.

(2B) In sub-paragraph (2A)—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

*Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
 Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)*

- (a) “relevant body” means a body which was a registered person at the time to which the complaint relates;
- (b) “officer”, in relation to a body corporate, means a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body.”

(4) In paragraph 9—

(a) in sub-paragraph (1), after paragraph (e) insert—

“(f) if the person to whom the complaint relates (“P”) was not, at the time to which the complaint relates, a relevant authorised person, order P or a relevant body in relation to P—

- (i) to refund all or any part of the fees charged by P or the relevant body for the immigration advice or immigration services to which the complaint relates;
- (ii) to pay to the person to whom the advice or services were provided an amount specified in the order by way of compensation in respect of any loss, inconvenience or distress suffered by the person as a result of the provision of the advice or services.”;

(b) after sub-paragraph (1B) insert—

“(1C) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(f) and this sub-paragraph—

- (a) a person is a “relevant authorised person” if—
 - (i) the person falls within section 84(2)(b), or
 - (ii) the person falls within section 84(2)(e) because the person acts on behalf of, and under the supervision of, a person falling within section 84(2)(b);
- (b) a body is a “relevant body” in relation to P if P was acting as the employee, officer, member or partner of the body when providing the immigration advice or immigration services to which the complaint relates;
- (c) “officer”, in relation to a body corporate, means a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body.

(1D) The total amount that may be ordered to be refunded or paid by virtue of sub-paragraph (1)(f) in respect of a complaint must not exceed £250,000.

(1E) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend the amount for the time being specified in sub-paragraph (1D).

(1F) An order under sub-paragraph (1)(f) may specify the time by which the refund or payment must be made.”

(5) After paragraph 9 insert—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

*“Order on determination of complaint to refund fees or pay compensation:
procedure, appeals and enforcement*

- 9A The complaints scheme must include provision securing that, where the Commissioner proposes to make an order under paragraph 9(1)(f) against a person—
- (a) the Commissioner must give the person a notice of what is proposed (a “notice of intent”),
 - (b) the person may, within the period specified in the notice of intent, make written representations and objections to the Commissioner in relation to the proposed order,
 - (c) the Commissioner must, at the end of the period for making representations and objections, consider any representations and objections made and—
 - (i) determine to make the proposed order,
 - (ii) determine not to make an order under paragraph 9(1)(f) against the person,
 - (iii) determine to make an order under paragraph 9(1)(f) against the person requiring the person to refund or pay an amount which is less than the amount mentioned in the notice of intent, or
 - (iv) provisionally determine to make an order under paragraph 9(1)(f) against the person requiring the person to refund or pay an amount which is greater than the amount mentioned in the notice of intent, and
 - (d) where the Commissioner makes a provisional determination as mentioned in paragraph (c)(iv), the person is given an opportunity to make written representations and objections in relation to the provisional determination which must be considered by the Commissioner before the order is made.
- 9B Where the Commissioner makes an order under paragraph 9(1)(f) against a person, the person may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against the making of the order.
- 9C (1) This paragraph applies where—
- (a) on determining a complaint under the complaints scheme, the Commissioner makes an order under paragraph 9(1)(f) for an amount to be refunded or paid to a person (“P”), and
 - (b) the appeal rights in relation to the order are exhausted.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(b) the appeal rights in relation to an order are exhausted at a time when—
- (a) it is no longer possible for an appeal against the order to be made under paragraph 9B (ignoring any possibility of an appeal out of time), and
 - (b) there is no appeal against the order which is pending.
- (3) On the application of P or the Commissioner, a court may order that the amount to be refunded or paid under the order is recoverable as if it were payable under an order of that court.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
Border Security, Asylum and Immigration Act 2025. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The Commissioner may make an application under sub-paragraph (3) only—
 - (a) in the circumstances specified in the complaints scheme, and
